Reveal How Vichy Dictator Finally Beaten in Martinique

MARTINIQUE, French West Indies—Full details of the long Vichy hold on this strategic island now emerge from behind a mystery which more right than that of any battlefield.

The story has been written by Jean Massip, known to the French underground as "Col. Perle," who operated from the nearby island of Dominica, not to be confused with the far more northern Dominican Republic. A copy of his document is held here by Robert Housh, a survivor of Dunkerque, and an interpreter with British troops throughout the African and European campaigns until his assignment here as information officer.

The story unveils the question of how Admiral Georges Robert, the Vichy dictator, could stay on in fact of the growing Free French movement everywhere. It may also answer the question of the complete swing to Communism that came

Would Banish Nazis To St. Helena

LONDON, (CPA)—The island of St. Helena, where Napoleon spent his last years, has been chosen in responsible London quarters as a place of banishment for the Nazi criminals who were convicted of crimes against humanity. The decision rests with the Allied control commission in Berlin.

When finally a blockade-starved people were liberated.

Held Full Control

Robert, survived from the fall of France to July 1944, because he controlled the island's only two newspapers, its only radio station and latter day of its gulls. The people heard each news of the war as he wanted them to hear, and the dictator was backed by 3,000 armed sailors. He also had the guns of the aircraft carrier Bearn, the modern cruiser Mistral and the battleship, along with those of 20 naval tankers. If that were not enough the island was a fortress at nearby Guadeloupe.

Reveal How

Robert strutted his might and prepared to give his all when it was reported an American task force was en route here in May, 1943. He planned dynamic under bridges and in tunnels, as the people took to the hills.

His sailors ate well while the blocked people starved. The school of married sailors took meat and bread to school from military-industrial sources. Local youngsters ate bananas for weeks on end. Scores of young men escaped to the Free French cause via St. Lucia and Montreal where they were in the attempt.

Starvation Forced Turn

It was this acute starvation that finally turned the tide—that plus the crust of a young continent's French army officer, Maj. Henri Courbet, later to be fighting in France, a local hero overlooked in the Communist Party of the United States.

The first outward move of anti-Vichy defiance came on June 11, 1943, when a star-struck delegation, led by the young Communist Gen. de Gaulle's London radio speech. The delegation was headed by 24. Robert said "no," and as the delegation returned to the island and all marchers, Victor Steyer, fired by Vichy in 1940 from his job as a member of the French army, and Emanuel Rimbaud, a member of the French army, they marched to the town of the island and the Robert group were not fired.

Armed Force

Events moved fast after that piece of defiance and shouts of "down with Vichy" were on every lip. From his small army station at Balata, Maj. Tourlet came out to meet the first armed mob. He issued a call for all free Frenchmen to join him and invited Robert to do something about it.

Robert did. He made a speech, promising that "order will be maintained at all costs." So more recruits rushed to the standard of the first-aid major. The situation was dynamic when Bishop Henri Varin in St. Brulard, head of the Catholic church here, went to plead with Robert to "abandon your last cause." The bishop said that if he "abandoned," he would walk unarmed between the combatants and he meant it.

Maj. Tourlet, meantime, had erected a small radio station, 800 feet from St. Pierre, married to join him. He sent final word to Robert. He was ready to meet armed force with armed force. The metropolitan police went to his aid and it was all over but the shouting.

Dictator Abducted

Robert fled to the Emil Berlin, then in danger. The record of his flight is a matter of interest to those who long had awaited this day. Robert was on his way out the next day, and that was the end of Vichy in the western hemisphere. The ships that might have been scuttled by armed forces were intact. The war were 300 metric tons of gold reserve of the Bank of France, stored here throughout the war.

By a strange coincidence, a shipload of American food arrived with in 48 hours.

Says Britain Must Avoid More Debts

NEW YORK, (CP)—Hugh Dalton, newly-elected chairman of the world bank, Friday said Britain has buckled down in earnest to the hard business of reducing its foreign debt. He said the government is making every effort to pay her way and to balance overseas trade accounts.

The chairman of the exchequer also told his audience of more than 1,000 members of the New York Chamber of Commerce that his country is "going easy" on imports, especially those classes as luxuries.

"The time has come when it is time to pay her way more debt, and especially to balance our overseas credit," Mr. Dalton said.

Russia May Buy 50 Canadian Ships

VANCOUVER, (CP)—Shipping officials here said that Russia is ready to purchase an undisclosed number of merchant vessels of the Dominion government. Park line now under charter to Britain and it is possible so may be sold to the Soviet next year.

Those sources said that 126 of the Dominion fleet of 176 vessels already have been disposed of but the other 50 will not be available to prospective buyers until next year because of present charges.

The Soviet was reported also asking to buy 96 American ships and was said to have opened unofficial negotiations for part of the Japanese fishing fleet in an effort to build a strong merchant marine.

Crowd Jeers, Boos At Primates Trial

ZAGREB, Yugoslavia, (AP)—The prosecution ended a long and grueling examination of Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac Thursday, and the head of the Roman Catholic church in Yugoslavia made a bitter final speech in his defense while the audience at his war crimes trial jeered and booed.

The prelate shook his finger at the court and cried: "As the Communists fight for the materialistic theory, so have we the right to fight for the spiritual theory."

To the court's charge that he avoided contacting state leaders, he replied to an incident charging with the Yugoslav government and the Zagreb archbishop, I had to get all the approval from the Holy See before I could do anything.

The Road Ahead

By Harper Power, MLA

Exclusive to The Kennesaw Bulletin

It seems today as if the complete destruction of our world had lost its sense of urgency and its perspective. In spite of the amazing discoveries of our scientists, the progress of our technology, the achievements by our industrialists, the advances made by medicine, the progress of our transportation, the world is filled today with unhappy and disillusioned people. Instead of being happy and content, our feelings are we wasting our lives by enjoying the things we have, and coveting those things we do not yet possess.

Although we like to describe ourselves as Christians the god we worship is not the God of the Bible. The whole aim of our lives is not to get contentment for our souls, but to get more things. In our old age, but to store up things for our children. We will never compel the admiration of our associates and the envy of enemies. Our lives are dedicated not to the service of those less talented than ourselves, but to the service of those more talented. Our mode of conduct is characterized by greed, hypocrisy, and selfishness. We are unable to obtain lasting and the wealth to become wealthy.

Today capital and management are the great oppressors of the masses. Labor is striving for better wages. The farmers for higher prices. The workers for higher wages.

There are here and there who want to go back and find no frequent cause for complaint. They are the trouble finding when the people are not. The complete destruction of civilization and mankind. Never before in our history have been seen, hatred and fears been so deep. The world is so full of people, life is so short, and it could be so pleasant for every one of us if we could just learn to enjoy the things we have. The world has provided for us. All of our problems would disappear if we could just learn to enjoy the advantages for ourselves, each of us would be happy. We are not to be the other fellow to practice a little of the brotherhood of man. We are to be the Christianity which we profess.

If only people would learn the things of the world. They are their fellow men and the measure of their success is not the material possessions, but the respect and gains from our fellowmen, not the size of our estate, but the length of our funeral cortege.

U.K. Officers in Dominions To Link Empire Defences

LONDON, (Reuters)—British liaison officers will be sent to each of the dominion capitals to work with dominion chiefs-of-staff on regional security problems under a new British defence ministry plan announced Friday along with a number of important cabinet decisions.

A government statement said "geography largely decides which problems most directly concern the separate members of the Commonwealth and it is the aim of the various governments to recognize and take advantage of this fact by arranging that regional co-operation shall in the first place be studied in the appropriate regional context."

The government has proposed that there should be established in each of the dominions liaison officers of the dominion chiefs-of-staff in studying regional security problems.

"Similarly they have proposed that the dominion governments should appoint liaison officers in London. It has been suggested that by this means regional studies can be directed by the government most immediately concerned with the help of a team of joint advisers."

"The fruits of these studies can be made available in London and in other dominion capitals and in this way that method of co-operation which is necessary can be secured."

"These proposals received a favorable hearing at the Commonwealth discussions in London in the spring and the governments in the dominions are studying them in detail. There is reason to suppose that in the main they will prove favorable and that they will pave the way for machinery which, while giving full play to independent member states of the Commonwealth, will be effective as a means of consultation and collaboration."

"The regional method of organization will also fit into any regional schemes evolved under the auspices of the United Nations in which other states will join with members of the Commonwealth in the appropriate geographical areas."

Okanagan Apples Set New Record

PENTICTON, B.C., (CP)—The 1946 apple crop from British Columbia's rich Okanagan valley will set a new high production record of close to 9,000,000 boxes, fruit auctioneers here said today.

An estimated 2,250,000 boxes are going to the United States and 6,750,000 to the home market.

Okanagan fruit ranchers will set a new record cash return this year, sometimes more than the total cash return from all tree fruit would be in other years, and possibly approach the $300,000,000.

Approve Powers In Social Service

CANBERRA, (CP)—Incomplete results of the Australian constitutional referendum, held simultaneously with last week's federal election, Friday indicated approval of the proposal to widen federal powers over social services but disapproval on two other questions.

The referendum has seemed since the counting started as they have with the election results, also still incomplete. So far, the required majority among the commonwealth's six states as individual voting blocs has been given only on the first question.

The Labor government also sought authority to organize marketing and stabilize prices of primary products, and to fix a national basis for industrial wages and working conditions.

Powers Thwarted
Authority over social services was asked because an adverse high court judgment against the federal free medicine act was regarded as a threat to existing social measures such as maternity and family allowances, widow's pensions and illness and hospital benefits.

The government also planned to establish a system of free medical and dental services and students' allowances. The constitution mentions only invalid and old age pensions as being within federal jurisdiction and to a result other social powers have been automatically within the field of the country's six states.

On votes counted so far, the electorate as a whole has favored all three proposed amendments but among the states the majority is favorable only to the social services referendum. All six states must vote "yes" on this question.

Results Close
New South Wales, Victoria and Western Australia voted favorably on marketing and working conditions but Queensland, Tasmania and South Australia opposed them. In all cases the voting was close.

While the count of constitutional ballots continued, electoral officials were fixing late election returns as absentee votes and the separate votes of service personnel including members of the occupation forces in Japan which may influence the result for nine house of representatives seats which still are doubtful.

The senate result has indicated Labor will fill 16 of the 19 vacancies and will have a 33 to 3 majority in the upper house.

The latest party standing for the house of representatives is: Labor, elected 38; Liberal 13; Country Party 10; Independents, three; probably elected: Labor four, Liberal three, Country Party one.

Nascopie Returns From North Trip

MONTREAL, (CP)—The Hudson's Bay Company's 37th annual trip into the Arctic was completed Thursday as the sled supply ship Nascopie sailed into port after a three-month haul against ice, low fumes and bitter storms.

The Nascopie's arrival was reminiscent of the ancient fur traders for in her holds were silver fox skins bought from the Eskimos for $20 a pair.

Since 1870 when King Charles II of England awarded a charter to the nucleus of the present company and gave them the lands around Hudson Strait, the company has sent its vessels into the treacherous northward in search of furs.

In 1869 the infant Dominion of Canada purchased the vast area owned by the company although the company still held several trapper posts.

Stranding out of Montreal July 6 on what is known as the eastern Arctic patrol, the Nascopie carried medical equipment, including an X-ray machine for the treatment of Eskimos, Indians and fur trappers.

About 1,500 Eskimo shuffles through the Nascopie's hold. Many were given glasses.

Commanded by Capt. James Waters, the staunch vessel brought back 12 RCMP officers who spent several years in the north. No others were there.

"We had read ahead for the first time this voyage," said Capt. Waters, "but you need more than that when you're trapped in the ice floes. One week we saw nothing but fog."

During her 30,000-mile journey the Nascopie visited Hudson Bay ports and stations on Baffin Island and Somerset Island.

The Bulletin's SPORT SHOW by Hal Dean

SPORTS EDITOR

Bert Robertson, president of the Granite Curling Club, seemed quite happy Friday night over the prospects for Edmonton's first professional curling season which opens on Granite's artificial ice on Monday, Oct. 10 and will continue four days.

"Entries are coming in steadily and already the list contains the names of the best-known curlers who attend the regular bonspiel, such as Jim McEwen, Red Deer, W. G. Harper, Dawson Creek; Sid Pawsey, Edmonton; W. Gilchrist, Grande Prairie; Roy, Alberta; Bert Ross and George MacLaughlin of the Royal Alex Latta, Thistle and Harold Ritchie, C. L. Rack, Dr. Knorr and Sid Easton of Granite."

Bert pointed out that judging by enquiries, some curlers are under the misapprehension it is an invitation affair. This bonspiel is wide open to everybody," assures the Granite president. "Nothing other than a general invitation to all has been extended and the first 48 to enter will be provided."

Rocks will be in action and there will be both day and evening draws. Enquiries should be addressed to Granite Bonspiel, 1030-92 Ave. Edmonton.

Goalie Jack Manson Out

Flyers held another workout at the arena Friday night with Manager-coach Riley Muller in charge. Ken McAuley merely held watching brief, but insists his misbehaving threat will be okay in day or two. Goalie Jack Manson, Maple Leaf junior graduate, was kicking out the punks.

For most of the hour three distinct line combinations were used. Johnny Black, centre, Elmer Kreller and Alex Pringle were Don Stanley going for Freddy Smith, C. Thomas, Harry Allen operated with Stan Devick and Ben Merluck. Johnny Kennedy also took part, as did the two Dutchies and Al Newsome. "Pup" Young and Bill Pettinger had plenty to do behind the blue line.

Riley says he was assured via long distance phone from Winnipeg yesterday that the Cleveland club would release the names of the defencemen and forwards, the Barons turning out at the earliest possible date. Muller seemed particularly pleased over the way John C. Thomas and Bill Pettinger are coming along and the coming back being by Johnny Black recently out of the BCAF who had little hockey since Maple Leafs hit the western junior final in '62.

Baseball School Thursday

John Ducey started Friday night that subject to confirmation over the weekend from Herb Heister, the baseball school to be conducted here by the major leagues, will start at Renfrew Park next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Difficulties having arisen to prevent the inclusion of high school students means the baseball school will be confined to junior league players.

John also put in a reminder that the Edmonton all-stars are playing an exhibition game with Canadian juniors at Renfrew Park tomorrow afternoon commencing at 7 o'clock. The seniors were scheduled to work out this afternoon.

The big time ball players now on tour under the direction of Earl Mack are expected to arrive in Edmonton Wednesday morning. Although it is just possible an advance party will reach here Tuesday. The games are Wednesday and Thursday, both at 2 p.m.

Jawks Hosts to Canucks

Canadian Athletic Club pre-views, bantam, midget, juvenile and junior hockey players will be guests of Chicago Black Hawks at a dinner to be held in the Macdonald hotel here Monday night. Black Hawks are "protected" on Edmonton, Canadians and Winnipeg Rangers. President Bill Tootle explained in Regina yesterday that NHL clubs could sponsor as many farm clubs as they wish, but get "protection" only on two. Hawks are financially assisting Moose Jaw Canucks.

Over 10,000 sought to buy world series tickets in St. Louis Friday and 5,000 still jammed the sidewalks when the "all sold" announcement was made. Scalpers prices were reported to range from $75 to $100 for blocks costing $27.50. . . . Frank Stranahan fired a five-under par 66 at Fort Worth Friday to lead at the half-way mark with 132. . . . Up to Friday night, approximately 280 seats for hockey games at the Arena here had been taken up via option.

No Freak Defensive Against Ted Williams

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5.—(AP)—The surest thing about the world series that finally will start here Sunday is St. Louis Cardinals will employ no freak defensive formation against terrible Ted Williams of Boston Red Sox.

The second biggest cinch is that the Redbirds, a cocky crew after their decisive triumph over Brooklyn.

"If Williams gets hold of one in our park it'll go out of sight and we have it out there," said manager Eddie Yost.

"CONFIDENT" they have left their recent batting slump behind them after compiling a team average of .345 in the playoffs, the National League champs feel they have at least an even chance against the vaunted Sox no matter what the odd-makers might think about it.

"Our rightfield fence is pretty deep, too," Yost pointed out. "If Williams gets hold of one in our park it'll go out of sight and we have it out there."

Hopes to See Many Americans Playing in NHL

REGINA, Oct. 5.—(CP)—Johnny Marucci might have felt lonely as the only United States-born-and-bred citizen with the Chicago Black Hawks last night, but he is looking forward to the day when his home town of Eveleville, Minn., will swamp the National Hockey League with stars.

The little iron-mining community near the international border has already turned out most of the Americans who like part in professional hockey. Johnny says, "that three of the four Americans in the NHL last year were from Eveleville."

They were Frankie Brimsek, Mike Karakas and himself. The outsider was Bill Moe and he came from Eveleville. Karakas was a defenseman, there are three left this season.

Hockey really came to Eveleville in the early 1930s when the immigrant Czechs and Slovaks came to the city. A Czech-Johnny was imported to play for the city team. Since that time hockey has been a part of the life of the town. Johnny says, "I was in the local high schools. They were the best hockey and wealthy that compares with Winnipeg's, Johnny said."

The 24-year-old graduate of Minnesota University, where he played football under the famous Bear Bryant, is a veteran of three years service with the U.S. Coast Guard. He was the state's male and ended up at Puerto Rico.

WINNIPEG Blue Bombers' starry rookie, John Marucci, is an old football-playing pal of Marucci's. The two were on a coast guard ship at Baltimore.

The brawny Hawks defenceman played with Marucci in the military, joining the service and returned to the hockey fold last year.

He believes that if the Hawks' defence can hold out, they will win this season, Chicago is the team to beat.

John McCormick To Return Here

ST. CATERINES, Ont., Oct. 5.—(CP) Johnny McCormick from Edmonton is expected to return to the hockey career for the priesthood. The 27-year-old six-foot-five defenceman, who has coached Happy Day of Toronto Maple Leafs and coach Johnny Mitchell of Pittsburgh, will return to the team.

SALMONBELLS Are Liquidated Three Straight

TORONTO, Oct. 5.—(CP)—While thousands of fans from the lacrosse-mad Niagara Peninsula cheered them to the echo St. Catherine's Athletics won the Mann Cup for the fifth time here last night when they defeated New Westminster. Salmonbellies for the third-straight time 11-7.

A large crowd of the series, 7,726 fans, saw the western stampede congratulate a better team when captain Joe Cheevers was presented with the $500 gold trophy, emblematic of Canada's lacrosse championship.

AFTER THE contest the crowd remained to cheer the undisputed champions of the best-of-five series—24-year-old Doug Favell, St. Catharines' goalie. He was presented with the Mike Kelly memorial medal after being chosen by sports writers as the outstanding player of the series.

Favell, a Royal Canadian Navy lookout for 10 years, dove into his net to the edge of his crease, leaped in the air on countless occasions and was struck twice in the head with the ball as he played faultlessly in the cage of the new champions.

THE A's were behind on the score sheet nine times and that was what Pete Mehan fired the opening goal of the game in 41 seconds. They moved into a 3-1 lead before the end of the session, went in 4-2 in the second and held a commanding 8-5 lead at the close of the third.

Salmonbellies went down fighting and moved to within a goal of the champions early in the fourth session, but failed to maintain the pace and the A's ran in the final three goals.

DECIDING FACTOR of the game and the series was the supremacy of the easterners in obtaining the draw at face off. They gained possession on seven of every 10 draws and forced the Bellies on the defensive even though they needed goals.

Four players shared scoring honors for the champions, Doug Cove, George Urquhart, Stu Scott and Jack (Wandy) McMahon all clicking in.

Little Red Hildebrand, star of the Salmonbellies, had slightly better luck than in the previous contests when his team hit 11-10 and 18-9, to notch two goals, as did Mehan and Jerome. Kip Bostley completed the westerners' scoring.

CHICAGO DOWNS KANSAS CITY 8-2

REGINA, Oct. 5.—(CP)—Chicago Black Hawks last night put their farm club, Kansas City Pla-mors in their place again as the National Hockey League club beat the United States League team 8-2 in an exhibition game before 3,000 fans at Queen City Gardens here.

Wings were undiminished when a city power failure doused the ice in darkness between the second and third periods. When lights came on players skated onto the ice only to be caught in darkness again. Stick handling with lanterns provided amusement until the power was finally restored.

RED HAMILL, former Sudbury, Ont., junior, led the scoring party, tallying one in the first, three and two within one minute in the third. But the Kansas City boys held their seniors to less than 10 in their engagement last Wednesday at Moose Jaw when the Hawks won 11-2.

Scoring was opened after 10 minutes of the first by Max Bentley, who will play tonight.

THE TEAMS MIXED it up in the third period with Hank Blade of Ottawa, Bill Gadsby of Edmonton and Clint Smith, Ashland, Sask., forward scoring along with Hamill.

Following the game both teams travelled for Saskatoon where they will play tonight.

BRUNSWICK RIVER IN N. C. TO BE "GRAVEYARD" FOR 400 VESSELS

MISSOURI'S GOV. APPEALS TO VET BONUS MARCHERS AT STATE CAPITOL

Copyright, 1946, by Acme Newspictures, Inc.

BEGINNING OF A GRAVEYARD—Having served their purpose during the war, and now declared surplus, these vessels are the first of more than 400 that will be tied in the Brunswick River lay-up basin near Wilmington, N. C.

INTENT LISTENERS—After marching to the State Capitol, hundreds of Missouri veterans listen on the floor of the Capitol building as they hear Gov. Phil M. Donnelly tell them they have taken the wrong method to gain a $400 state bonus. The vets made an orderly retreat.

IN OLD SURROUNDINGS—Gen. Ike Eisenhower smiles with his family as he visits familiar places in England. Here the Chief of Staff and his wife are being greeted by their son, John. The General was enroute to Germany to inspect Army installations.

VISITORS—Actor Dick Powell and his lovely wife, actress June Allyson, wave to friends as they arrived for a vacation in New York.

QUEEN'S BONNET—As big an attraction as any of the displays at the opening of the "Britain Can Make It" exhibit in London, was this new hat worn by Queen Elizabeth.

CHISELER—Jack Bilbo, author of the book, "I Carried a Gun for Al Capone," chisels the finishing touches on his 16-foot-high solid concrete statue, "Devotion." The statue was completed in secrecy in Weybridge, Surrey, England.

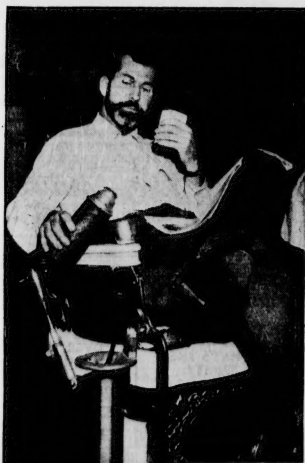

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER, Joan Smith, of Bellmore, L.I., smiles triumphantly as she is awarded the "Miss Stardust of 1946" title in New York City. The slim, blue-eyed blonde believes the idea a Sunday School teacher must never smile and wear horn-rimmed glasses is outmoded.

"WHERE'S MY BONE?"—Everyday for years, this bull dog, Oscar, visited Don Pike's butchershop in Memphis, Tenn., for his bone. Here Pike tries to explain to the disappointed dog that there is no bone today because of the meat shortage.

TOPS IN MASONRY—Publisher Roy W. Howard, center, of the Scripps-Howard Newspapers, chats with Episcopal Bishops Bartel Reinheimer, left, of Rochester, N.Y., and Austin Pardus of Pittsburgh, after the newspaperman received the 33rd Degree, highest honor of Masonry, in Pittsburgh.

HE NEEDS A BARBER—After New York City barbers had been on strike for two weeks, radio announcer Leslie Scott moved into his favorite barbershop. He is going to wait for the strike to end, he says. The disc jockey is known as "The Great Scott" on New Jersey station, WBYN.

CALIFORNIAN—While most people are getting out their top coats for fall wear, this pretty model displays what the California girl will wear in the west.

will buy again... WHY?

They want to keep on saving. Canadians, being thrifty folk, like to put something away for a rainy day. They liked the idea of saving by means of Victory Bonds during the war. They want to continue this method of saving.

That's what was disclosed in a survey, conducted early this year in all parts of the country. 82% of the thousands of Canadians interviewed said, "Yes, we want to keep on saving. We like to save with bonds."

Since no more Victory Bonds or War Savings Certificates will be issued, it was decided to make "Canada Savings Bonds" available to Canadians. These bonds have many new features that will interest you. For example, you can buy Canada Savings Bonds in units of $50, $100, $500 and $1000. You may buy up to $2000 per person. They pay 2 1/2% interest each year, for ten years. You can cash Canada Savings Bonds at full face value, with interest, at any time, at any branch in Canada of any chartered bank.

But please remember this point. These are "Serve Yourself" Bonds. This time there will be fewer salesmen. They will not be able to call on everyone. So it's up to you to take advantage of this fine investment opportunity—without delay.

How to Buy

You can buy them at any bank; authorized investment dealer; stock broker; trust or loan company—for cash or by the Monthly Savings Plan. Where your employer offers a Payroll Savings Plan you can buy Canada Savings Bonds by regular deductions from your pay.

September Sets Monthly Marriage Record for 1946 to Date: Pretty October Bridals Planned

302 City Couples Pledge Vows In Golden Days of September

The crisp fall days of September with their golden sunshine and brilliantly colored foliage were chosen by 302 city couples, the highest number in any month to date this year, for their nuptials.

June, the traditional "honeymoon month," ran second to record-breaking September with a total of 273 marriages, while July and August took third and fourth places respectively with 217 and 203 marriages.

That weather is an all-important factor in determining the wedding date is shown by the monthly marriage figures for the cooler months of the year. March, of the temperamental "hen and lamb" days, can claim only 138 "knot-ties" in 1946, thus placing last in the monthly marital race. January, February and April were almost equally unpopular among engaged couples with only 104 weddings in January and April and a mere 107 in February.

Besides setting a record for the first nine months of 1946, September could tie its own score in past years. Last year, September could claim only 130 weddings, the same figure it achieved in 1945. In 1944 and 1942, it counted 178 and 179 weddings, far below its previous peaks of 222 marriages in 1941, and 290 in 1939.

The monthly marriage figure for 1946 is indicative of the public's "flick fancy." In that month, only 101 couples pledged vows, a sorry showing compared to September's 1945 record.

October's Indian Summer days will be chosen also by many couples for the exchange of their vows. In recent years, October has been gaining in popularity as a wedding month, reaching a seven-year "high" in 1945 with a total of 228 marriages. This was the highest figure for October since 1929, when 224 marriages were recorded.

Judging from the number of marriages during the first week of this month, October is destined also to do some record-breaking on its own. But the wedding bells have to wait without stop during every one of October's 31 days if October is to steal the title of "Edmonton's favorite marriage month" from September.

FIRE PREVENTION Week

Fire Toll Mounts Steadily Throughout the Dominion

With fires on the increase in Canada, and reaching the appalling total of 52,173 during 1945, 391 persons lost their lives through fires — the equivalent of an entire village, men, women and children wiped out. That is the statement of Ralph R. Moore, Alberta fire commissioner, when speaking of preparations for National Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 7 to Oct. 12.

IN ADDITION to the spending of Canadian fires needlessly, Canada spent $42,000,000 on fires during the past year—in losses to property, personal, public and business. It has nothing left to show for this expense except loss of life, property and attendant misery following in the wake of wrecked homes, ruined businesses and general despair.

Of that amount, $10,500,000 was property that was uninsured, a total loss.

The remaining total of property loss—$31,500,000 was insured property, which because of the present shortage of materials and man power cannot be replaced, and thus represents an unreplaceable loss for some years to come.

THE LOSS in domestic, mercantile and personal property suffered during the year, cannot be replaced easily, said Mr. Moore, "perhaps never."

Loss in life suffered by Canada during the past year represents an increase of 84 over 1944 when 307 persons were killed by fire. Loss in property represents an increase of almost $2,000,000 over the preceding year when $40,500,000 worth of property was lost. Total of fires during the year, 52,173 represents an increase of almost 2,000 over the preceding years' total of 50,173.

FACTS AND FIGURES—Ralph R. Moore, Alberta fire commissioner, under whose direction, facts and figures of fire losses in human life and property are compiled for the Alberta government. He has urged the public as a whole the necessity for the utmost care in prevention of fires.

IN EVERY PHASE loss of life, property and the number of fires in 1945 has shown an increase over the preceding year. Altogether during the last ten years more than 2,000 Canadians have died due to fire accidents, statistics reveal. The increase of last year is indication of the manner in which the

Greater Care Is Urged To Curb Hazard of Fire

Canadians from Halifax to Victoria will join next week, Monday, Oct. 7 to Saturday, Oct. 12, in observing National Fire Prevention Week. By royal proclamation, the week has been set aside to bring to the attention of all citizens the prevalence and alarming increase of fire hazard, and subsequent loss of life, personal and public property which each year is claimed through fires, the majority of which might be prevented.

DURING the year 1945, it is revealed by authorities there were 52,173 deaths due to fire alone across the Dominion and a loss in property amounting to $42,000,000.

While the most serious loss of life and property occurs in highly congested cities, areas, and in industrial centres, no one province or community is without its toll of loss.

Fire hazard has grown in the past 10 years. Of the 291 persons lost by fire, 159 were men, 86 were women and 146 were children, either burned or smothered.

Increase of fires according to Mr. Moore can be traced to an increase in personal and community carelessness.

SMOKING, with lighter matches and smouldering butts thrown away or carelessly laid aside, domestic and office carelessness, the majority of fires. Faulty heating equipment, unattended electrical appliances in the home, overheating of houses, and general carelessness are the major reasons for home fires.

Hotel fires are caused, many of them, by guests who smoke in bed or who leave lighted cigarettes around when leaving their rooms.

Home fires where small children are lost are caused to a great extent by parents' carelessness. Either lack of instruction to children on the dangers of fire, or the practice of leaving young children locked alone in the home while the parents are out, account for the most tragic losses due to fires.

"AUTHORITIES are trying at present," Mr. Moore said, "to have the minimum number of fires revised, so that parents, proven to have been careless in leaving their children alone in locked houses, causing the death of those children, may be charged with criminal negligence, directly responsible for the deaths of their children."

"It is hoped," he continued, "that a general awareness on the part of the public to the dangers of fire, will prevent undue fires, and irreparable loss of life and property."

WOULD CURB FIRE: 'Victory over Fire was urged Saturday by Fire Chief James Macgregor, head of the Edmonton Fire Department, in inaugurating in Edmonton Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 7 to 12. The necessity for every home and business owner to exercise the utmost care in the prevention of fire was stressed in view of what he termed the "obnoxious figure" of losses in life and property in the Dominion each year by fire.

prevention are outlined by fire prevention officials. Store widespread education as to the fire hazard, study of methods in housing and personal care by which fire can be prevented and thoughtful consideration of individuals and groups are urged and civic officials in the fire weapons which can defeat the growing menace of fire. Better construction of buildings, routine inspections and care in placing of furniture, and planning of heating for rooms and houses will do much to prevent fire. Heating equipment that is checked periodically, rooms that are not over-crowded and houses that are not over-heated will do much to ensure safety.

CARE IN the storing of clean materials, paint removers, gasoline, oil, kerosene and oil in the home, and in the prevention of fire in homes.

Periodic check-up of wiring, electrical appliances and radio and news, October 12.

Recently the government of the province has added three persons to its fire inspection staff, bringing the total to six, so that greater care can be exercised in the care of public and private property.

STRONG WARNINGS have been issued to all citizens to accept responsibility for fires as a personal cause, and do all in their power to check and decrease the fire hazard.

Fire Chief Urges Need for Caution

Need for setting aside one week out of the year to focus attention on the causes of fires and how to prevent them is apparent from the staggering losses resulting from fires each year, Fire Chief James Macgregor, of the Edmonton Fire Department, said Saturday.

He stressed the importance of Fire Prevention Week which commences Monday and ends on Saturday, October 12.

FIRE CHIEF MACGREGOR pointed out that fire losses raise this challenge: "Though victory is won over the aggressive nations on the victory similarly be won over fire?"

He recalled that in 1945, fire losses in Canada amounted to the "obnoxious figure" of $42,000,000.

There were 52,173 deaths from fire, and which each and every day threatens the life and well-being of Canadian citizens.

The Safest Fuel

THE NATIONAL FIRE PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION estimates that in 1945 there were 600,000 fires in the U.S., with a property loss of $456,000,000. Of the total number of fires, GAS and GAS APPLIANCES are charged with 4,000, or two thirds of one per cent. Smoking is listed as by far the greatest fire cause with 100,000.

VICTORIA HIGH SCHOOL

The very latest addition to EATON'S fraternity of youth . . . 14 young men representing the University of Alberta and the High Schools in Edmonton . . . a hustling, thriving group of young connections with the world outside the EATON Store, keeping us tuned in on the Hi-world wave length.

They're modern as television . . . they're the terrific 'teen-agers'; from where we are standing it looks like an interesting year . . . definitely. In their executive meetings the boys get their keen slant on merchandising, public relations, and, of course, on the clothes and sporting goods that are tops in the inter-scholastic circles.

So . . . EATON'S the store for Young Canada introduces the Junior Executive you'll see around . . . they'll let you in on what's sizzling at EATON'S. They'll tell you that EATON'S has a combination that's hard to beat.

PEEPING TOM

The TEENIE WEEENIES

BY Wm. DONAHAY

CUT ME OUT.

THE Lady of Fashion and Tess, one of her Teenie Weenie friends, are down on cats, especially tom cats. They want all cats kept out of the Teenie Weenie village. Of course, it is not fair to blame all cats for the bad deeds of one cat, for there are some mighty nice cats and they shouldn't be blamed for the acts of wicked ones. All this excitement came out of an unfortunate experience the Lady of Fashion and Tess had one afternoon.

It was a warm afternoon and the two tiny women decided to take their knitting and go down to the creek which runs near the Teenie Weenie village. They found a nice spot on a big rock at the edge of the water under the shade of a big baneberry bush. They worked away with their spider web yarn and chattered, as women will, while knitting their tiny stockings.

"Let's go swimming," suggested the Lady of Fashion after they had been knitting for sometime.

"We haven't any bathing suits," said Tess, a little shocked.

"We won't need them here," said the Lady of Fashion. The men have taken the cart and gone off to help Nick, the red squirrel, gather hazel nuts. No one will ever come around here. It's perfectly safe.

The little women peeled off their dresses, shoes and stockings and their tiny pinkies and slid off the rock into the water. The water was cold at first and the little women squealed some, but soon they were splashing about in great enjoyment. Suddenly the Lady of Fashion had that strange feeling, as women do, that some one was looking at them. She glanced at the shore and there, behind the bushes, sat a strange tom cat staring at the two little bathers.

Teenie Weenies are afraid of strange cats, for a cat might mistake them for mice and that would be just a bit difficult. The two women were too scared to climb upon the rock for their clothes so they quickly waded around a bend in the creek. Presently, they climbed up the bank and set off for the shoe house, but they suddenly remembered they had no clothes on. The Lady of Fashion pulled a small maple leaf from a shoot and wrapped it around her tiny naked body. Tess did the same and in a few minutes they reached the shoe house. No one was at home and the two little women soon put on some clothes.

When the men came home they complained to the General. He laughed and sent some men to get the women's clothes from the rock.

"The next time you go swimming you'd better put on your bathing suits," joked the General.
